

Ace Cafe London 75th Anniversary Special 1938-2024: A Diamond Jubilee Celebration

Ace Cafe London: A Brief History

The Ace Cafe London is a legendary meeting point for bikers and car enthusiasts. It was founded in 1938 by two motorcycle enthusiasts, George and Joe Aumonier. The cafe quickly became a popular hangout for bikers, who would often gather there to socialize and share stories. In the 1950s, the Ace Cafe became a hub for the British rock and roll scene, and it was often visited by celebrities such as the Beatles and the Rolling Stones. In 1969, the cafe was closed due to redevelopment, but it was reopened in 1994 by a group of enthusiasts who wanted to preserve its legacy.
