Tsunami Rider 19 is the brainchild of chef and owner Hiroyuki "Hiro" Terada. Hiro was born and raised in Japan, and he brings his passion for fresh, sustainable seafood to his restaurant. All of the fish at Tsunami Rider 19 is flown in daily from Japan, and Hiro is meticulous about selecting only the highest quality ingredients.

The menu at Tsunami Rider 19 is extensive, with a wide variety of sushi, sashimi, and rolls to choose from. There are also a number of cooked dishes, including tempura, teriyaki, and udon. But the sushi is the star of the show.

The sushi at Tsunami Rider 19 is simply stunning. The fish is incredibly fresh and flavorful, and Hiro's knife skills are impeccable. The rolls are beautifully presented, and each one is a work of art.

In addition to the sushi, Tsunami Rider 19 also has a great sake menu. Hiro is a certified sake sommelier, and he can help you find the perfect sake to pair with your meal.

The service at Tsunami Rider 19 is impeccable. Hiro and his staff are incredibly friendly and attentive, and they go out of their way to make sure that you have a great dining experience.

Tsunami Rider 19 is a hidden gem that is well worth seeking out. If you're looking for the best sushi in Nashville, look no further.
